Candidates should remember that good attempts and the official cut-off are different. Accuracy and marks obtained matter more than simply attempting a large number of questions.

IBPS PO Prelims Exam Analysis 2026 - Overall Paper Review

The IBPS PO Prelims Exam Analysis 2026 for Shift 1 indicates that candidates needed a balanced approach involving speed, accuracy and careful question selection. The Preliminary Examination contained three separately timed sections of 20 minutes each.

- English Language: Easy to Moderate.
- Reasoning Ability: Moderate.
- Quantitative Aptitude: Moderate to Difficult.
- Overall Difficulty: Moderate.
- Overall Good Attempts: 70-76.
- Sectional Timing: 20 minutes for each section.
- Negative Marking: Applicable for incorrect answers.

Since the IBPS PO Prelims examination has now been completed, candidates can use this Shift 1 review to evaluate their performance and understand the level of questions asked in the 2026 examination.

IBPS PO Prelims Exam Pattern 2026

The IBPS PO Preliminary Examination consists of 100 questions carrying 100 marks. The total duration is 60 minutes, with a separate 20-minute timer for each section.

Section	Questions	Maximum Marks	Time
English Language	30	30	20 Minutes
Quantitative Aptitude	35	30	20 Minutes
Reasoning Ability	35	40	20 Minutes
Total	100	100	60 Minutes

Important IBPS PO 2026 Exam Pattern

Under the CRP PO/MT-XVI Preliminary Examination pattern, Reasoning Ability contains 35 questions for 40 marks, Quantitative Aptitude contains 35 questions for 30 marks, and English Language contains 30 questions for 30 marks. Therefore, candidates should analyse their performance on the basis of marks and accuracy rather than assuming that every question carries the same weight.

IBPS PO Negative Marking 2026

Negative marking applies to the objective tests of the IBPS PO examination. For every incorrect answer, one-fourth or 0.25 of the marks assigned to that particular question is deducted while calculating the corrected score. There is no penalty for an unanswered question. Because the marks per question are not identical across all three Prelims sections in the revised pattern, the penalty should be understood as one-fourth of the marks assigned to the specific question and not necessarily a flat 0.25 mark for every question.

IBPS PO Shift 1 English Language Analysis 2026

The English Language section contained 30 questions for 30 marks with a sectional time limit of 20 minutes. Based on Shift 1 candidate feedback, the section was reported as Easy to Moderate.

What is a Good Attempt in IBPS PO Prelims 2026?

A good attempt is not simply the maximum number of questions attempted. It is an estimated attempt range based on the overall difficulty of a particular shift, the number of manageable questions and the level of accuracy expected from a well-prepared candidate. For the IBPS PO Shift 1 Exam Analysis 2026 of 22 August, the candidate-feedback based estimated overall range is 70-76 attempts. A candidate attempting fewer questions with high accuracy can score better than someone who attempts more questions but makes several incorrect responses.

ExamTune Analysis Tip

Good attempts are not the expected or official cut-off. Final performance depends on the actual marks scored after negative marking, sectional performance, category-wise qualifying requirements and the cut-off subsequently decided by IBPS.
