Is IBPS RRB Clerk Prelims Qualifying?

Yes. The Preliminary Examination is used for shortlisting candidates for the Main Examination. For the Office Assistant (Multipurpose) post, the marks obtained in the Online Main Examination are considered for the final merit listing. Therefore, candidates need to clear Prelims but should prepare for Mains simultaneously because final selection depends on the Main Examination score.

Does IBPS RRB Clerk Have an Interview?

No. There is no interview for the IBPS RRB Office Assistant (Multipurpose) post. Candidates who qualify through the required examination stages are considered for provisional allotment on the basis of the applicable Main Examination merit, vacancies and other recruitment conditions.
